

Help bring awareness of disaster birthing needs to your community with this innovative workshop.

We offer training to create “the birth bubble”, review and education for managing challenging birth scenarios when resources are scarce or stabilization prolonged.

Provides hands-on response practice including triage, chain of command, first aid and team building for successful outcomes.

Birth in the Wild utilizes a myriad of debriefing techniques following each scenario for immediate feedback and meaningful self-assessment and learning enhancement.

FAMILY WAY EDUCATIONAL SERVICES
c/o Andrea Dixon, CNM
2772 Mule Deer Drive
Weed, CA 96094

POST INFORMATION REGARDING YOUR LOCAL OFFERING HERE

BIRTH in the WILD; midwives responding to disasters

BIRTH IN THE WILD; midwives responding to disasters

Perfect for:

- Seasoned midwives intending to volunteer in disaster zones
- First responders wishing to prepare for birth in disasters
- Birth attendants aspiring to global response in emergencies
- Prior B.E.S.T. participants wishing to expand skills for disaster response

BIRTH in the WILD; includes

Basic Disaster Birth Support

(BDBS)

Developed by Ruth Walsh

4.0 hours

Advanced Birth Emergency Skills Training (B.E.S.T.)

Developed by Andrea Dixon

4.0 hours

Disaster First Aid International Program

www.disasterfirstaid.com

4 hours, including field practice

Advanced BEST Scenarios Round Robin

4 hours

APPROVED BY ACNM FOR 16 CONTACT HOURS

(American College of Nurse Midwives)

BDBS:

Designed as a complete training for birth professionals, EMTs, civilian response personal, or the lay public who must be prepared to support basic birth during a disaster.

Advanced B.E.S.T.:

In depth Birth Emergency Skills Training focused on challenging birth related situations where resources are scarce, emergency facilities non existent or stabilization prolonged.

Disaster First Aid:

Lifesaving training for the first critical minutes, hours and days of a major emergency. Including rapid victim triage, chain of command and team work in disaster zones.

ADVANCED B.E.S.T. Scenarios:

Surprise twins, breech, VBAC, hemorrhage, CPR, NRP, triage and injury stabilization incorporating BASIC DISASTER BIRTH SUPPORT, DISASTER FIRST AID and BIRTH EMERGENCY SKILLS.

Contact Us

Family Way Educational Services
FAMILY WAY EDUCATIONAL SERVICES
c/o Andrea Dixon, CNM
2772 Mule Deer Drive
Weed, CA 96094
317-294-3972

miniwife@sbcglobal.net

www.birthemergency.com

We can also provide testimonials from prior participants and references for our programs success in real scenarios.